NEW BUSINESS-None

COMMENTS FROM THE SUPERVISORS

L. Platz reported that the garbage contract bids were opened on August 7th and read the results. The contract will be awarded at the next meeting. She also mentioned that the annual Clean-Up Day is September 20th and the flyers should be going out soon.

COMMENTS FROM THE STAFF

J. Adams stated that paving will start next week.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Ray Penkalski asked when work is going to start on Cole Spring Road. John replied that once they get their current projects complete, they can start replacing cross tubes, etc.

Sandy Anderson asked if the Friends of the Library's fee to sell popcorn at Music in the Park can be waived since the Township gives them a yearly donation. The Supervisors agreed that it could. She also mentioned that Birchdale is still bumpy from the sealcoating. John said he was up there and didn't feel it was too bad where the cars drive.

Motion by C. Brocious, seconded by P. Dion to adjourn the meeting at 4:24 p.m., motion carried (3-0).

Respectfully submitted,

Lindy Platz
Secretary
